

Conference

7th International Woodfibre Resource & Trade Conference

Santiago, Chile | 3 & 4 November 2014 Sheraton Santiago Hotel

19 speakers from 13 countries: Including from Australia, Chile, China, Indonesia, Japan, New Zealand, Portugal, South Africa, Turkey, UK, Uruguay, USA and Vietnam.

Optional field trip opportunity: 5–7 November. Forest plantations, wood processing, and woodchipping and export terminals; all around Concepcion.

Topics Include:

- The 7th meeting in the very successful series since 2005
- Global & Latin American pulp demand trends, & impact on woodfibre
- Global woodchip & woodpellet shipping trends
- Regional woodchip market demand & future predictions: Japan, China, Korea, Taiwan, India, Europe & Turkey
- Regional woodchip supply presentations: Oceania, Chile, Other Latin America, Africa & "Other" South East Asia
- The "Prince of Woodchips" in Vietnam separately presenting on the situation & predictions from the world's largest woodchip exporter
- Regional woodchip supply & demand: The "Atlantic" regions of North America, Spain, Portugal & Turkey
- Pulpwood & biomass prices
- European wood pellet demand
- North American wood pellet & biomass supply
- Asian Biomass Market Outlook
- Global Timberland Investment trends
- New Projects Panel: This is a feature of each meeting
- Major field trip visiting Arauco's "Nueva Aldea Industrial Complex (Log merchandizing line, sawmill, plywood mill & pulp mill); CMPC's plantation forests; & Fulgum/Volterra & Portuaria Cabo Froward's woodchipping & loading terminals
- and much more.

For more information go to:
www.woodfibreconference.com

7th International Woodfibre
Resource and Trade Conference

