

Knowledge Tree Series

Introduction to FSC® and effective stakeholder engagement

Are you interested in FSC and want to know what it is and how you can harness its power? Do you want to know how the standards work and how to comply? Are you concerned about an FSC certification process and wish to have your voice heard? Then come along to our free information session specifically targeted to help you grow your FSC Knowledge Tree.

Topics

- Credible environmental standards and auditing systems in the International context
- FSC's Governance, Structure, Membership & Purpose
- FSC and the market – driving change in forest management
- FSC's global impacts – summary of independent research
- All about the Standards
 - ⊙ Sourcing of forest fibre
 - ⊙ Processing & tracking of the forest fibre
 - ⊙ Promotion of the certified products
- Effective Stakeholder Engagement in FSC Certification Processes
- Influencing the nature & content of FSC's standards Internationally and in Australia

Speakers: Natalie Reynolds CEO FSC Australia
Daniel Mackey Deputy CEO – Policy, FSC Australia

Facilitation: Associate Professor Fred Gale – University of Tasmania

Panel: Auditors from the Independent Certification Bodies operating in Australia will be present to answer questions
Vanessa Linforth, Social Policy Manager, FSC International

2 Sessions only. Bookings are essential for catering purposes and to ensure pre-reading is provided ahead of the meeting

Hobart: Tuesday 3rd September
10.30am – 2.30pm (arrive by 10am)
C3 Convention Ctr, 64 Anglesea St South Hobart
<http://www.trybooking.com/DJGK>

Launceston: Thursday 5th September
2pm – 5pm (arrive by 1.30pm)
University of Tasmania, Newnham Campus. Swanson Building (A18), either room G71 or G80 depending on attendee numbers (registrants will be advised prior to session)
<http://www.trybooking.com/DJGM>