

Australian Fabian Society

Children overboard, weapons of mass destruction, wheat for weapons, allegations of secret deals for special mates and conspiracy charges....

Can public trust in government be restored?

Opinion polls suggest that trust in governments and politicians is declining around the world. Young people in particular are cynical about whether parliamentarians can be trusted to do what's 'right'. Do Australians trust their governments? Does good governance depend on our leaders being trustworthy? What can be done to build trust in government?

Join

Greg Barns • Sue Neales • Peter Tucker
Professor Jeff Malpas

Thursday 3 May 2007 • 7pm • Backspace Theatre, Sackville Street
• Enter via laneway beside Theatre Royal • Bar open from 6.30 pm

ALL WELCOME

For more information contact Kate Law (03) 6234 5255