Dear Mr Heares

I refer to your email in which you indicate that you wish to make an official complaint about the University of Tasmania to me.

My apologies for the delay in this response which has in part been caused by the need to request information from other Ministerial offices.

I can now clarify that the Tasmanian Government has no jurisdiction over the University of Tasmania, and I would suggest that in the first instance your complaint should be directed to the University of Tasmania's Vice-Chancellor's Office.

For your information if you consider that your complaint relates to public sector misconduct the appropriate body for you to refer to is the Integrity Commission.

Yours sincerely
