

THE moving mountains PROJECT

Trekking for good in Peru and Nepal

pictures from the mountains

Sidespace Gallery, Salamanca Arts Centre
10–17th December 2009

View a collection of photos of mountains and mountain life in remote Peru and Nepal, taken on walking trips by The Moving Mountains Project. The Project organises treks through off-the-beaten track mountain landscapes to support education development projects in remote mountain areas. To see the beauty of these mountains and the people who live there, visit the Sidespace Gallery 10–17th December 2009.

International Mountain Day celebration
Sidespace Gallery
Friday 11 December 2009, from 6pm

In 2003, the United Nations designated 11 December International Mountain Day to highlight sustainable development in the mountain regions of the world. On Friday 11 December from 6pm, join a celebration of International Mountain Day at the Sidespace Gallery. Hear more about what The Moving Mountains Project does in the mountains of Peru and Nepal — and how to participate in one of our unique walks.
