

WHY

The ANZ logo is displayed in a bold, white, sans-serif font, tilted slightly upwards to the right. To the right of the text are several stylized, overlapping leaf shapes in shades of grey and white.

BACK A DODGY MILL?

ANZ is the Aussie bank backing Gunns Ltd's pulp mill and is its primary financier.

Gunns Ltd is on the brink of collapse – debt of $616 million – selling all assets to try and keep their pulp mill project alive.

This month ANZ will decide whether to extend Gunns' debt facility.

If ANZ refinances Gunns' debt then all ANZ customers deserve to learn how their bank backs the polluting, corruptly approved and financially risky pulp mill in Tasmania, Australia.
