

U-HELP

YOUR CHANCE TO HELP UKRAINE

Do you want to help Ukraine?

U-HELP (the Ukrainian Humanitarian Educational and Leadership Program of the Australian Federation of Ukrainian Organisations) is the endorsed way for Australians to support Ukraine's sovereignty, democratisation and path to peace and prosperity, and is now open to your personal support.

Q. What will U-HELP do?

- A. Fund humanitarian and medical assistance for people currently being injured in the self-defence of Ukraine.

Support educational and leadership initiatives that promote Ukraine's future democratisation and prosperity through increased Ukraine-Australia social, political and economic ties.

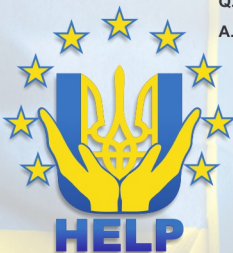

Q. What will your personal contribution fund?

- A. U-Help will be rolled out over the next 12 months. It's top Priority, working with the Ukrainian World Congress' Directorate of Humanitarian Affairs, based in Kyiv, will be Humanitarian support for those harmed while defending Ukraine:

- Funding first aid training for Ukrainian service personnel and providing them with the appropriate medical and related equipment;
- Training medical professionals to treat combat-related injuries, and;
- Providing assistance to the families of those who perished during the Maidan movement, such as the Heavenly Hundred.
