

WEST WELLINGTON SPRING OPEN DAY

Come along to experience these high altitude forests and learn more about their conservation values.

- Walks and talks
- Deep ecology
- Find out how the Forestry Intergovernmental Agreement may affect the area
- Family friendly
- Children welcome
- Free event

When: Sunday September 18th

Where: Meet at Judbury Park (next to the hall) at 10am (Finish around 2pm)

How: Travel in convoy. 4WD recommended. Some car-pooling may be available.

What to bring: A picnic lunch, water, sturdy shoes, warm clothes and wet weather gear (it's always colder in the mountains and the weather is unpredictable)

Organised by the West Wellington Protection Group and the Huon Valley Environment Centre

For more information email contact@wwpg.info

