You are invited to a musical afternoon hosted by the West Tamar Arts Group
featuring

XIAO XIA SOLO SINGER WITH CHINESE HARP

in the gardens of Fresh Water Point Homestead Nobelius Drive, Legana

on 18 March, 2012
from 2 pm onwards.

This is an invitation to attend a musical afternoon hosted by Julia Clifford, chairperson of the West Tamar Arts Group, together with our patron and deputy mayor of the West Tamar Council, Cr. Christina Holmdahl.

West Tamar Arts Group in partnership with Tasmanian Regional Arts proudly presents this concert by Xiao Xia performing the East meets West series. The repertoire covers a wide range of arias and songs from well known musicals as well as traditional Chinese songs and instrumentals.

Dr. Peter & Mrs Elizabeth Wallis welcome you to their heritage listed property at Freshwater Point. Situated on a headland overlooking the Tamar River, the 1820's homestead has been passionately restored to it's original splendour.

Rambling gardens featuring mature trees and an ever changing river backdrop surround this historic private home.

We thank Peter and Elizabeth for their generous support in bringing this musical event to their West Tamar property.

We ask you to join them, along with your friends, on this occasion to support the West Tamar Arts Group in creating a partnership between artists and the community to provide artistic experiences for all.

Bring along a picnic hamper, refreshments, rug or folding chair and enjoy the friendship, musical inspiration and atmosphere of this unique event.

Please help WTAG make this occasion a memorable success by inviting up to ten of your friends to join us.

The cost is $30 per person. The funds raised will be used to bring visual and performing arts to the Tamar Valley during Artentwine in October 2012.

Cost of tickets will be reimbursed if the event is cancelled.

Xiao's performance will start at 3.30 pm and last for 80 minutes, with two intervals.

Gates open at 2 pm.

Parking is limited at the residence, so 3 shuttle buses will be provided from Woolworths Salvos carpark at Legana. Buses will depart from 2 pm to 3 pm.

Return trips will start from 5.45 pm.
